

Etta Open Expense

Bundled is Better.

Deem's solutions are designed for the way employees work and travel, and the way companies apply policy and control costs. Etta is built to help employees be more productive, solve problems on the fly, and focus on the job. Etta's powerful platform allows travel managers to customize their travel program and service their travelers with ease.

Today's business world has never been more mobile. At Deem, we create products that give employees everything they need to make better travel decisions, wherever they are. With the most intuitive, secure, and powerful solutions, your team will save you money, stay connected, and get more done. And when employees have access to the tools they love, they're happier and more engaged. That's why more businesses are embracing Etta.

Etta Open Expense

Etta Open Expense allows Etta travel booking data to integrate and seamlessly flow from Etta to expense partners that we have integrated with. Working together with the partner provider, Etta travel transactions flow automatically into the linked expense platform, providing a seamless user experience. Open integration allows for the application of all policy requirements and system settings.
