

Starter Career Site

Find the right fit with a professional page tailored to your recruiting needs

When you need to create a specific destination for recruiting initiatives, it can often mean lengthy lead time with internal resources who are juggling other initiatives. In addition, making quick copy changes can be difficult.

With Monster's Starter Career Site, we'll help you create a professional landing page to drive more applicants. Leverage our Starter solution for a hiring event, promote hiring for a specific department or role, or as a destination for a recruiting media campaign. Optimized for SEO and designed so you can easily make your own updates, our turnkey solution allows you to be up and running quickly.

Find the right fit, fast

Get started quickly with a professional career site that is mobile-optimized and designed to help you engage with the right candidates. Include a header, 2 sections for copy and add a form for lead capture. As simple as that.

Drive applicant conversion

Whether it's a form fill out or resume submission via email, decide your own call-to-action to create a seamless experience for applicants. In addition, you can also link to open jobs you've posted on Monster.

Simplify your hiring process

Quickly and easily make updates and edits without lengthy processes! Our mobile-responsive design allows you to update images, colors and text to show off your employer brand and demonstrate what makes you unique. And you can always check in with how your page is driving conversion with basic Google Analytics reporting.

At Monster Strategic Talent Solutions, we create platforms where stories can live with purpose. From using a specific word in a call-to-action to the imagery selection, we do everything to create a better user experience, so that you can promote your employer brand, share your content, and connect with people who have the potential to become serious applicants. Everything in one place: your Starter Career Site.
